It took eleven innings to get the Climbers on their back in the first ontest and in the last inning and one fun reeded to the up the count Marning was switched out in favor of loque who pitched to the last two batters and stored the verdict out of the first two batters and stored the verdict out of the first To-day's dauges effect of Richmond Brought about a lear sweep of the bought about a lear sweep of the four-game series, and established the Friend Position.

Leafs a little more safely in third position.

To-marrow and Saturday the Champion Providence Grays will be here, playing double-headers each day Upon these games the International League flag of 1915 depends. It is up to the Leafs—the Grays may be able to overcome Buffalo's uncertain lead, but if they take the series from Toronto, with the latter going in the unbeatable manner of the past couple of weeks, they will have to zo some.

Dunn started Ensign Cottrell against the Leafs in the first battle, and he and Cook engaged in a corking flingers' duel. Perhaps Cottrell had a shade on the lecal man, but the latter got support such as is accorded few pitchers. Cottrell went to the ninth when he all the score 2 to 2. He was then taken out for a pinch hitter, and Mc-Hyle finished up. It was against the "Irish Thrush" that the winning run was scored, but it was no fault of his at that.
